

Worn Women

Women, worn and tired from overwork, need a tonic. That feeling of weakness or helplessness will not leave you of itself. You should take Wine of Cardui, that effectual remedy for the ailments and weaknesses of women. Thousands of women have tried Cardui and write enthusiastically of the great benefit it has been to them. Try it—don't experiment—use this reliable, oft-tried medicine.

TAKE CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Rena Hare, of Pierce, Fla., tried Cardui and afterward wrote: "I was a sufferer from all sorts of female trouble, had pain in my side and legs, could not sleep, had shortness of breath. I suffered for years, until my husband insisted on my trying Cardui. The first bottle gave me relief and now I am almost well. Try Cardui. It will help you."

WIFEBEATERS BLAME HEAT.

Seven men in jail yesterday for beating their wives will plead in the Whiting Ind., court that the hot wave drove them to assault. The most serious of the attacks was made by James Brown, who threw a shoe at his wife and tore off one of her ears. He was fined $25.

Returning home Monday night, he brat his wife so fiercely that she probably will die. He said his anger against her had been beaten to frenzy by the weather. Thomas Bosack knocked his wife down and kicked her in the face. John Brezina interfered. While the two men were fighting, the woman hurried to the police station and swore out a warrant for Brezina, charging him with assaulting her husband.

In her absence her husband whipped her would-be protector into unconsciousness. Bosack said he also was crazed by the heat. The other five wifebeaters also charge their rage to the weather.

ACQUITTED AND REARRESTED. Broughton Brandenburg was acquitted yesterday in New York of the charge of having sold to the New York Times an article by Grover Cleveland, which the district attorney contended was not genuine but was Brandenburg's own invention and composition.

Brandenburg was rearrested on a warrant sent from St. Louis, where he has been indicted for kidnapping. While he was a fugitive from New York he went to St. Louis and met his stepson, Sheppard Cabanne, Jr., who is seven years old. He took the boy to California in a clothes hamper. Brandenburg said in the course of the trial that he ended that he took the boy because the child was only in the custody of Sheppard Cabanne, Sr., by a stipulation with his mother, and that the terms of the stipulation had been violated.

Despite the protests of Brandenburg's counsel, he was committed to the Tombs in default of $5,000 bail.

OFFICIAL.

To City Tax Payers—Notice

Collector's Office, June 14, 1909. Notice is hereby given that the tax bills for 1909 are now in the hands of the Collector. The attention of parties interested is respectfully called to the following extract from the revenue bill of this year:

"Upon all bills paid in full by the 1st day of July, 1909, the Collector of Taxes shall allow a discount of six per cent, and on all bills paid by the 1st day of September, 1909, he shall allow a discount of four per cent, and on all bills not paid on the 1st day of December, 1909, there shall be assessed and collected a penalty of five per cent upon the amount of said bills, and on all bills remaining unpaid on the 1st day of June, 1910, damages at the rate of six per cent per annum shall be paid."

Taxpayers would do well to call and pay at once in order to avoid the rush and crowd usually present on the last days in which the discount is allowed.

Bring a list to make sure you get bills for all your property, as the collector will not be responsible or allow the discount after the time fixed by law. P. F. GORMAN, j68 11
